LIPTON MAY ISSUE ONE MORE CHALLENGE

Would Give Every Dollar He Has, He Says, "to Bring Cup Back to the Old Country."

London, Sept. 30.—It is possible that Sir Thomas Lipton may issue still another challenge for the America's cup. He tells The World correspondent that he hopes his business will allow him to sail for New York next Saturday.

Regarding a challenge, he said:

"The New York Yacht club knows perfectly well that I am always ready to challenge if they will accept one under the American rules. I always say that what's good enough for Uncle Sam is good enough for me. I believe in sticking to the rule that represents the stars and stripes and not the rule that is handed from every yacht club in America.

"There are no better sportsmen in the world than the New York Yacht club, but they are sticking to a rule sixty years old, which prohibits me or any other yachtsman in Europe from having a ghost of a chance of winning.

"The conditions under which the cup is at present held do not represent sport. All I want is that when the gun fires I am to have an equal chance. I don't say I'll win, but none could say I didn't get a sporting chance.

"I would give every dollar I possess to bring that cup back to the old country."

Regarding his visit, he added:

"I want to meet my friends, the kindest people in the world, and to see more of the greenest country on God's earth."
